

BOUTIQUE DESIGN NEW YORK

One Global Showcase For The Hospitality Trade Takes
New York City By Design From Nov. 10-11, 2013

TEXT Susan Sherman

ABOVE: Go Home's sophisticated pop art chair, "Andrea," is cushioned in a bright color-blocked mingling of orange and pink. 718/445-4986; www.gohometd.com

RIGHT: Sleek "Rivington" nesting tables from GO Home feature wrought iron, glass and a polished-nickel finish that lend elegance to any commercial or residential space. 718/445-4986; www.gohometd.com

The burgeoning interior design fair Boutique Design New York, now in its 4th year, caters to the hospitality industry from Nov. 10-11, 2013, when more than 325 international exhibitors unveil their most luxurious high-end collections. Hosted by the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York City, an anticipated 5,000 interior designers, architects and trade executives will gather to mingle and exchange ideas in this 60,000-square-foot creatively charged venue. www.boutiquedesignnewyork.com ♦